Of course, where there is only one member in the voters list, the nomination need not be seconded, and where excluding the candidate there are no members in the voters' list, the nomination need not be either proposed or seconded.

(c) In case of a central or apex society which has only one society member and no individual member, for election to the board of such central or apex society to fill up the seats reserved for Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes or for women, a person whose name is not included in the voters' list, shall also be eligible for being nominated as a candidate.

(v) The Committees will go into the complaints of wrongful acceptance, non-acceptance or rejection of nomination papers only in cases where such complaints have already been made either before the Court or before the Election Commission or any other authority. Nomination papers are not to be rejected for frivolous reasons such as discrepancies in signature, if the signatures are identifiable, affixing of signature at the wrong place, etc.

(vi) In disputes with regard to polling, counting of votes, etc., the Committees will look into the ballot papers to see if the votes have validly been cast. However, in the event resolution of the dispute requires detailed evidence, the Committee shall remit the complainants / objectors to their alternative remedy under Section 90 of the Tamil Nadu Co-operative Societies Act, 1983 and refer the disputes to the Registrar of the Co-operative Societies, who shall appoint a panel of three Arbitrators to adjudicate the dispute.
